SERIAL NO. 10/530,763

Our client has failed to pay the outstanding balance of legal bills including out-of-pocket expenses such as USPTO fees for a significant amount of time. Reminders were sent to the client regarding the outstanding balance at least on May 18, 2006, May 24, 2006, June 24, 2006 and July 31, 2006 for Debit Memos dating back to April, 2005, which Debit Memos remain outstanding. It is not expected that we will receive payment anytime soon.

The client was notified July 31, 2006 that, unless we received payment in ten days, we would file a request to withdraw as counsel with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. More than enough time has passed for the client to either pay the balance or otherwise contact our firm regarding the balance.

The client has been provided with copies of all relevant correspondence regarding prosecution of this application.

There is ample time for the client to obtain other counsel. The present status of the application is that it is awaiting examination: no Office Action has issued and no other due date has been set by the Office, so granting this Request will not prejudice the Applicant.

In light of the above, due to the absence of receiving all of our fees from this client, we do not want to expend any further time or expense on this application or continue to be responsible in any way therefore. For these reasons, we earnestly solicit the Commissioner's prompt consideration and approval of this application to withdraw.
